

TOWN OF POMFRET
CONSERVATION COMMISSION MINUTES
AWARD CEREMONY OF JUNE 14, 2007
POMFRET OLD TOWN HOUSE GARDEN

There was no official meeting this evening. The commission presented the Lois Orswell Award for Environmental Awareness of 2006 in the community garden.

Ann Hennen, Chairman was the Master of Ceremony. The fourth annual awards were presented to Raymond Liston for his Chairmanship of the "new" Conservation Commission, David Patenaude for reestablishing the Conservation Commission, and Andy Rzeznikewicz the Consummate Conservationist.

There were about thirty people present and refreshments were served. Any nominations for the 2007 awards need to be presented to the Conservation Commission by January 31, 2008. Get those nominations in.

Respectfully submitted,

Betty Morin
Clerk
